

Art Ideas based on The Wise Man and The Foolish Man

In school, we will be mixing paints to make secondary colours. The children will then use their colours to try and create their own stormy scenes. We will show the children these pictures to give them some ideas, but they will be able to make their own choice of final design.