So many of you enjoyed experimenting with chocolate that I thought I would put your culinary skills to the test. First, tickle your tastebuds by trying some food that originated in Greece. Perhaps taste: olives, natural yoghurt, honey or calamari.

If you feel more adventurous, pick up a recipe card from class and have a go and create your very own Greek treat!

Ancient Greece spanned hundreds of years. We are focussing on the period around 2,500 years ago. Many great works of art were created, like the famous pottery sources we will discuss. Stories told and re-written. Enormous stone structures like the Parthenon were built. Some of their creations changed the way people live today.
